.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue, writ, order in the nature of the Writ of Mandamus and after declaring the action of the respondents in not admitting the petitioner into duty from 30.4.96 till date is highly, arbitrary, illegal and unconstitutional and consequently direct the respondents to admit the petitioner into duty as Salesman forthwith and pay the salary from 30.4.96 with all consequential benefits, arrears of pay etc.

Counsel for the Petitioner: Sri.K.LAKSHMINARASIMHA

Counsel for the Respondents: MR.P.SRIDHAR REDDY (Not present)

The Court made the following ORDER:

This writ petition is filed by the petitioner alleging that he was not being allowed to join the duty when he reported after leave period, which he had availed due to ill health.

2. This Court while admitting the writ petition passed the interim order directing the respondents to admit the petitioner into duty as Salesman forthwith, pending disposal of the writ petition.

3. It is stated by the learned counsel for the petitioner that after passing of the interim orders by this Court, he did not receive any communication from the petitioner.

4. However, in view of the interim direction passed by this Court and as the learned Counsel for the petitioner submitted that he has not received any information from the petitioner with regard to his admission into the duty, and as no orders passed by the respondents against the petitioner are forthcoming, the writ petition is disposed of in the light of the interim directions issued by this Court dated 17.02.1997. No costs.
